MATTHEW GROUSE – C.V.

E-mail: info.matthewgrouse@gmail.com / Web: www.matthewgrousemusic.com / www.eartransplant.org
Living in Copenhagen, Denmark

I'm a composer, performer, organiser and teacher working at an intersection between music for instruments and voices; electronic sound; text; video; staging and performance. My music often engages with a re-contextualisation of everyday sounds, objects, and repetitive social behaviours to reveal the latently musical in the banal. My music has been programmed at festivals such as: SPOR Festival (DK); Darmstädter Ferienkurse (DE); Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival (UK); and Matera Intermedia (IT). I have worked with artists and ensembles such as SWR Symphonieorchester; BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra; ensemble mosaik; Curious Chamber Players; Aarhus Sinfonietta; Athelas Sinfonietta; NADAR; K!ART; Red Note Ensemble; The Hermes Experiment; Duo Van Vliet; accordionist Andreas Borregaard; guitarist Frederik Munk Larsen, pianist Zubin Kanga, violinist Anna Jalving, and percussionist Sam Wilson (Riot Ensemble).

As of 2024, I am the composition teacher at Sankt Annæ MGK in Copenhagen, preparing young composers for higher education.
I am the co-artistic leader of Denmark-based ensemble/concert series 'Ear Transplant', a new venture for meticulously curated new music events. Working voluntarily to strengthen opportunities for young composers/sound artists, I was the chairperson of Aarhus Unge Tonekunstnere between 2023-2026 and was the treasurer of Ung Nordisk Musik (DK) 2023-2024. Between 2021-2025 I was a co-director of composer-performer group Current Resonance.
